

DADS

(Designated Adult Dancers)

DADs are a very special and critical part of That Dance Thing. DADs are paramount in providing a safe, secure, and fun environment for the students – and that is appreciated by all participants and parents.

Being a DAD is a win-win situation for you and your teen(s). You spend time with your own teen/s (and other great kids) on Friday or Advanced Saturday nights. You become an accomplished dancer. And, you enjoy the great satisfaction of investing time in today's young people. Your presence at TDT provides additional adult supervision on the dance floor with the teens and helps balance the ratio of girls to boys. Your regular attendance and commitment are extremely important. We depend on DADS in many ways. If you register to be a DAD, please understand we expect you to be present.

The need for DADs is based on the number of teens registered and the ratio of girls and boys. If you are interested, please complete the form below and mail it as soon as possible along with your teen's registration form. Make sure you indicate whether your attendance will be on Fridays or Advanced Saturdays at St. Giles Presbyterian or Emmanuel Episcopal, respectively.

In addition, you will be required to sign The Dovetail Group's Policy of Conduct and complete a background check (forms provided) before the first class. Once your background forms have been returned from the State of Virginia, you will be able to participate in class. These requirements and other items will be discussed at our mandatory DADS Orientation Meeting. A date and time for that meeting will be given out shortly. DADS do not pay to attend TDT.

If you were a DAD last year, you only have to sign an annual review form.
